Food

Belgium's food specialities extend far beyond just beer, chocolate, chips and waffles. This small country has rich local resources with fish and mussels harvested from the North Sea, pheasant, rabbit and venison from the forested hills of the Ardennes, and excellent beef and lamb from the Flemish polders.

Traditional dishes include moules frites, stoemp (mashed potato with leeks and carrots), witloof en oven (endives wrapped in ham and covered in cheese sauce), waterzooi (fish or chicken and vegetable broth), paling in't groen (eel cooked in a sauce of spinach, herbs and white wine), lapin aux pruneaux (rabbit cooked with prunes and beer), Faisan à la brabançonne (pheasant cooked in butter with Brussel sprouts and endives), and filet américain (or steak tartare, raw mincemeat mixed with egg, onion and capers).

You will find plenty of places to enjoy a meal or snack, ranging from the Michelin-Starred to the humble fritkot (chip stand).

Watch out for restaurants offering a lunchtime special set menu – dagschotel or plat du jour – they offer great value for money. Usually, a discretionary service charge is added to your bill in restaurants and bars, and no further tipping is required, although if service is considered excellent, it is customary to round up the bill.

Drink

Over 400 beers are brewed in Belgium – ranging from the mass-produced lagers like Stella Artois to the local, artisanal microbreweries. You will find everything from brown ales, amber ales, white beers, Flemish reds, Indian pale ales, to stouts and Lambic beers. Trappist beers, such as Chimay, Achel, Orval, Rochefort, Westmalle and Westyleteren, are brewed in Trappist monasteries, with monks taking an active part in the production process and the profits supporting the monastery. Bières d'Abbaye, the best known being Leffe and Grimbergen, however, are commercially brewed, just using the name and recipe of former monastic breweries. Try a Hoegaarden for a white beer, Lambics and Guezes for oak-aged beers, a Duvel for a blonde ale, a local Cantillon (microbrewed in Brussels), or if you prefer something sweeter, the cherry-flavoured Kriek.

The local spirit is Jenever, similar to gin, originally flavoured with juniper berries.

This tour is on a bed and breakfast basis and includes:

- Christmas Eve dinner at a local restaurant
- Christmas Day dinner at a local restaurant

Taking food and drink into EU countries

Destination

Bruges

Set on a labyrinth of canals lined with magnificent medieval buildings. As well as being picturesque, there is a wealth of artistic and architectural heritage to uncover, reflecting its history as the cradle of Flemish painting and its economic significance as a textile and trade centre up to the late 15th century. The focal point of the city to which all roads seem to lead, is the impressive Markt central square, flanked by magnificent houses with crow-stepped gables, old guildhalls, towering belfry, and the covered market. Elsewhere, the Burg square is lined by four of the city's most impressive buildings: the Gothic townhall, Basilica of the Holy Blood dating from the 12th century, the Renaissance court record office and the old law courts. Other sights include the medieval city walls, St-Salvator Cathedral, picturesque Begijnhof almshouses and Onze-Lieve-Vrouwekerk (Church of Our Lady), famed for its "Madonna and Child" by Michelangelo, but part of the attraction of this beautiful city is just to wander at leisure along its canals and squares, soaking up the festive atmosphere, enhanced by a colourful Christmas market. The city boasts several superb museums too - don't miss the Gruuthuse Museum housed in a 15th century palace, with an impressive collection of tapestries and lace, the Groeninge Museum's stunning collection including Jan van Eyck's serene "Portrait of Margaretha van Eyck" and Gerard David's gruesome "The Judgement of Cambyses" and finally Mernling Museum set in the 12th century hospital of St John's, itself one of the most beautiful buildings in Bruges.

Ghent

Less famous than its near neighbour, Ghent is a vibrant university city home to 43,000 students and Flanders' spiritual citadel. Criss-crossed by canals and waterways, its old town is perfect for exploration on foot and it boasts a wealth of sights to interest the visitor. One of the city's great attractions is the Cathedral - St Baafskathedraal - that houses the famed "Adoration of the Mystic Lamb Altarpiece" by Jan van Eyck, which dates from the 15th century and is widely regarded as one of the most important works of art in the world. Elsewhere in Ghent, do not miss the 91m high belfry, 15th century Cloth Hall, townhall, numerous important churches including St-Michielsbrug and St-Jacobskerk, several delightful market squares, Graslei quayside lined with ancient houses in a pure Flemish architectural style dating from the 12th to 17th centuries and 12th century Gravensteen (Chateau des Comtes). There are notable museums, too, including the Museum voor Schone Kunsten with its collection of ancient and modern paintings including works by Hieronymous Bosch, SMAK modern art museum and Museum of Decorative Arts.

Antwerp

Belgium's second city, Antwerp, is one of the world's largest ports and a thriving modern city renowned as the centre of the diamond industry as well as being home to a characteristically Flemish old town. Home and birthplace of Rubens, the city has a strong artistic heritage reflected in its host of churches and museums. As with many Flemish towns and cities, Antwerp boasts an impressive market square surrounded by 16th and 17th century guildhalls and flanked on one side by the richly adorned 16th century town hall. Other unmissable sights here include the Cathedral and belfry, Butchers' Hall dating from 1502, Rubens' House and several more important churches. Amongst the city's many museums, the Plantin-Moretus is outstanding, housed in the former printworks of famed printer Plantin, covering some 34 rooms and containing the renowned Gutenberg Bible, one of only 13 in the world.

Reading Suggestions

Insight Guides, Explore Bruges.

Explore Bruges is part of a brand-new series and is the ideal pocket companion to this historic town: a full-colour guide containing 15 easy-to-follow routes which lead you from the busy main square dominated by its magnificent 14th-century belfry, via leafy streets to fascinating museums and the calm courtyard of the Beguin nuns. Insight's trademark cultural coverage perfectly sets the routes in context, with introductions to Bruges' entertainment, history and love of fine food and drink.

The Basics

Climate – The weather in Bruges at this time of year is likely to be cold and there is the chance of rain or snow. Our best advice is to come prepared.

Time – GMT +2 hours (Summer time Apr-Oct); GMT + 1 (Standard time Nov-Mar).

Language – French & Flemish.

Religion – Roman Catholic.

National holidays – New Year’s Day (01 Jan); Easter Monday; Labour day (01 May); Ascension day; Whit Monday; National Day (21 Jul); Assumption of Mary (15 Aug); All Saints’ day (01 Nov); Armistice day (11 Nov); Christmas day (25 Dec).

Currency – Euro. €1 = 100 cents. Notes are in denominations of €500, 200, 100, 50, 20, 10 and 5. Coins are in denominations of €2 and 1, and 50, 20, 10, 5, 2 and 1 cents.

Banks – Cashpoints compatible with international banking networks are located in all towns and cities, as well as airports, major train stations and other spots. They usually offer an attractive exchange rate. Those banks that still exchange foreign currencies into local money will always charge a transaction fee, so withdrawing money from an ATM usually represents the most logical means of obtaining euros.

Credit cards – American Express, Diners Club, MasterCard and Visa are widely accepted across the country. If you’re eating at a restaurant, check prior to the meal that your card will be an acceptable form of payment. Even in cities, it’s advisable to carry a supply of cash with you at all times. Varying amounts of commission can be charged.

Electricity – 220 volt, two-pin continental plug.

Drinking water – Tap water is safe to drink. (Although you’ll find a huge amount of bottled water for sale too)

Shops and museums – Shops are open Mon-Sat 1000-1800/1900. Department stores often remain open longer, up to 2100 on Friday. Outside main areas, some shops may close at lunchtime. Please note that most museums are closed on Mondays.

Clothes & shoes – You may like to bring a warm sweater for cool evenings. Light rain wear for the occasional storm and good grip/flat walking shoes are recommended.

Camera – bring plenty of memory cards/film and any spare camera batteries as these are not always available. Please check with your guide before photographing people.

Bath plugs – The hotel has plugs for basins, but it is useful to carry a ‘universal’ one with you.

Telephones/mobiles – You should be able to use your mobile phone in France, depending on your operator and contract. The guarantee of free mobile phone roaming throughout the EU, Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway has ended. Check with your phone operator to find out about any roaming charges you might get from 1 January 2021. A new law means that you’re protected from getting mobile data charges above £45 without you knowing. Once you reach £45, you need to opt in to spend more so that you can continue using the internet while you’re abroad. Your phone operator will tell how you can do this.

Tipping – To keep our tours affordable, we do not increase the tour price by adding in tips. However, in the tourism industry, there is a certain level of expectation that when receiving a good service, one does award with a tip. Tour Managers, Representatives, Guides and Drivers appreciate a tip at the end of their involvement with the tour, but this is entirely at your discretion. We believe in allowing you to tip according to your level of satisfaction with their services, but for your guidance about £2-3 per person per day for the tour manager is the norm. We would like to reiterate that tipping is an entirely optional payment and this information is given purely to answer any questions you may have about it.

Health

Doctor/Dentist/Chemist

Please talk to your tour manager if you are feeling unwell and they will organise for you to see a doctor.

Keep receipts for insurance claims.

Hospital

Your tour manager/hotel reception will arrange hospital transport.

General Health Advice

We suggest you take a good supply of your own individual medicines with you and always keep some in your hand luggage in case you get delayed or your luggage goes astray. General-purpose supplies for bites, stings, or scratches, and your usual medication for headaches, or stomach upsets are always recommended. Oral re-hydration sachets are excellent for topping up salt and glucose levels.

Visit the NHS Fit For Travel website for more generally information specific to the country you are visiting – www.fitfortravel.nhs.uk

Inoculations

You should check with your own doctor and take their advice as to which inoculations are required for the country you are visiting, as only they know your medical history and recommendations are liable to change at short notice.

Insurance

To be covered under your Travel Insurance Policy, if you become ill, it is essential that you contact a local doctor and also telephone the emergency number of your insurance company. You will NOT be covered for any claim unless this procedure is carried out. Your insurance company will then decide on the best course of medical attention.

European Health Insurance Card (EHIC)

Before you travel, make sure you've got a valid European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) or UK Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC) or travel insurance with health cover.

You may not have access to free emergency medical treatment and could be charged for your healthcare if you do not have an EHIC or GHIC when visiting an EU country, or travel insurance with full healthcare cover when visiting Switzerland, Norway, Iceland or Liechtenstein. If you have an EHIC it will still be valid while it remains in date. Your European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) or Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC) will be valid if you're travelling to an EU country.
