Accommodation

Les Roches Hotel, Les Eyzies

The 3-star Les Roches is a family-owned, friendly hotel located in the heart of the Périgord Noir in Les Eyzies, an ideal location to explore the Dordogne. There is a lovely garden, an outdoor pool and a bar. The comfortable bedrooms are equipped with private bath/shower, TV, telephone, safe, wi-fi and hairdryer. Unfortunately rooms at the Les Roches do not include coffee/tea making facilities, so we suggest you bring a travel kettle if required.

For more information visit their website
<http://www.roches-les-eyzies.com/index1.php>

Food

The Dordogne region is famous for its duck (or goose) dishes. Try Magret de canard (duck breast), confit de canard (duck legs cooked and preserved in the bird's fat and fried in the fat for a crisp coating), and the very popular foie gras. Cassoulet (bean stew with mutton, pork or sausages and preserved goose) often features on menus in the Périgord. The Black truffles of Périgord are another speciality well worth trying, as are the various cheeses, such as the goat cheese Cabécou of the Rocamadour area.

Walnuts trees are as common in the Dordogne as oliviers in Provence and walnuts have played an important part in périgord culture since the Middle Ages. Try the delicious walnut oil, the traditional sweet of the region gâteau aux noix (walnut cake), or walnut chocolate.

Coffee is served after the meal and will be black, in small cups, unless a café au lait (or crème) is requested.

Almost all restaurants offer two types of meals: a la carte (extensive choice for each course, generally more expensive) and le menu (a set meal at a fixed price).

The bill (l'addition) will not be presented until it is asked for, even if clients sit and talk for half an hour after finishing their meal. Usually, a discretionary service charge is added to your bill in restaurants and bars, and no further tipping is required.

Generally speaking, mealtimes in France are strictly observed. Lunch is as a rule served from noon to 1330, dinner usually from 2000-2130, but the larger the city, the later the dining hour.

Drink

Wine is by far the most popular alcoholic beverage in France, and the choice will vary according to region. The Bergerac wine producing area is best known for its Côtes de Bergerac AOC (soft red wine), Bergerac AOC (young dry white wines, rosés and reds) and the Montravel (perfumed dry white wines and red wines). For a sweet white wine, try the Monbazillac.

In elegant restaurants the wine list will be separate from the main menu, but in less opulent establishments will be printed on the back or along the side of the carte. The waiter will usually be glad to advise an appropriate choice. If in doubt, try the house wine; this will usually be less expensive and will always be the owner's pride.

Meals included in the price of your holiday are:

Breakfast – daily

Dinner – at a local restaurant on the second and last nights (set menu) of the tour.

Destination

Probably the most beautiful river in France, the Dordogne winds majestically through a magnificent tableau of medieval hill villages, craggy hillsides, vineyards and towns full of character. Visit the spectacular monastery Rocamadour, be taken back in time with amazing prehistoric cave paintings and dwellings and explore the culinary delights of the magnificent region of Périgord.

Places of interest included in the tour:

Beynac, La Roque-Gageac & Domme

Spectacular and memorable, Beynac's 14th century fortress towers above a village that clings to a sheer cliff overlooking a beautiful stretch of the Dordogne. This lovely day exploring the Dordogne also takes us to the gorgeous riverside village of La Roque-Gageac. Sitting at the foot of cliffs, right on the river, the light stone houses reflect peacefully on the water. The beautiful medieval fortified town of Domme sits on a rocky outcrop above the river offering fascinating history and a glorious panorama of the Dordogne River.

For more information about Beynac, please visit:
<http://www.beynac-en-perigord.com/en/>

Bergerac & Monbazillac

The lively and attractive market town of Bergerac has a charming mix of Renaissance and medieval architecture. With quaint streets it is a delightful place to explore the excellent shops, restaurants, and a fascinating tobacco museum. Nearby is Château Monbazillac that produces some of the area's best wine, including a famous dessert wine of the same name. There will be a guided tour and wine-tasting during our visit.

For more information about Bergerac, please visit:
<http://www.beynac-en-perigord.com/en/>

Périgueux

The ancient city of Périgueux has Gallic and Roman roots – the excellent Vesunna Gallo-Roman Museum will tell you more – but today it is also a gastronomic city where, on market day, you can pick up all sorts of delicious regional specialties such as truffles, charcuterie and succulent pies called “pâtés de Périgord.” Other sights include the cathedral quarter of medieval streets, the Cathedral St Front and the Musée de Périgord that houses a comprehensive collection of prehistoric artefacts.

For more information about Périgueux, please visit:
<http://www.tourisme-perigueux.fr/en>

Sarlat

Sarlat-la-Canéda has an unmissable old town full of medieval, Renaissance and 17th century buildings in an attractively uniform honey-coloured stone. Protected by law since 1962, this area is almost without equal in the whole of France. Highlights include the Cathedral St. Sacerdos, the Chapelle des Penitents Bleus, and the Bishop's Palace, but the real attraction here is to wander the immaculate streets at leisure.

For more information about Sarlat, please visit:
<http://www.sarlat-tourisme.com/en>

Rocamadour

One of the most important centres of pilgrimage after the discovery in 1166 of an ancient cave containing the undecayed body of St Amadour, the spectacular situation of Rocamadour on a rock above the Alzou Valley commanding wonderful views has ensured its continued popularity with tourists. Worth seeing in this iconic and impressive site is the picturesque pedestrianised town leading up to the complex of religious buildings including the Basilica of St-Sauveur, the Stations of the Cross, the Chapel of Notre-Dame (Miracles) and of course the tomb of St Amadour.

Prehistoric Man - Les Eyzies, Lascaux IV & Rouffignac

The Dordogne area boasts a wealth of sites occupied thousands of years ago by our distant ancestors. In 1868 several skeletons of Cro-Magnons (the first early modern humans) were unearthed in Les Eyzies (the base for our tour). In fact, the town is at the centre of a whole series of archaeological sites allowing it to earn the name of ‘capital of Prehistory’. The interesting National Museum of Prehistory is well worth a visit.

Lascaux IV offers a superb replica of two of the cave halls of Lascaux (now closed), where the Palaeolithic cave paintings are estimated to be 17,300 years old. Other highlights include the cave system at Rouffignac, that contains 250 engravings and cave paintings from the Upper Paleolithic era.

Tour Manager

Your tour manager will be on hand throughout the tour to ensure that everything operated according to plan. If you have any problems or questions, please see him or her immediately – it is often possible to resolve complaints or problems very quickly on the spot and do everything to help you enjoy your holiday.

The Basics

Climate – The weather in Dordogne at this time of year is likely to be pleasant, but there is the chance of the odd shower. Our best advice is to come prepared.

Time – GMT +2 hours (Summer time Apr-Oct); GMT + 1 (Standard time Nov-Mar).

Language – French.

Religion – Roman Catholic.

National holidays – New Year's day (01 Jan); Easter Monday; Labour day (01 May); Victory in Europe day (08 May); Ascension day; Whit Sunday; Whit Monday; National day (14 Jul); Assumption of Mary (15 Aug); All Saints' day (01 Nov); Armistice day (11 Nov); Christmas day (25 Dec).

Currency – Euro. €1 = 100 cents. Notes are in denominations of €500, 200, 100, 50, 20, 10 and 5. Coins are in denominations of €2 and 1, and 50, 20, 10, 5, 2 and 1 cents.

Banks – Cashpoints compatible with international banking networks are located in all towns and cities, as well as airports, major train stations and other spots. They usually offer an attractive exchange rate. Those banks that still exchange foreign currencies into local money will always charge a transaction fee, so withdrawing money from an ATM usually represents the most logical means of obtaining euros.

Credit cards – American Express, Diners Club, MasterCard and Visa are widely accepted across the country. If you're eating at a restaurant, check prior to the meal that your card will be an acceptable form of payment. Even in cities, it's advisable to carry a supply of cash with you at all times. Varying amounts of commission can be charged.

Electricity – 220 volt, two-pin continental plug.

Drinking water – Tap water is safe to drink. (Although you'll find a huge amount of bottled water for sale too)

Shops and museums – Enjoy the charming markets and excellent speciality shops.

Department stores are open 0900-1830 Monday to Saturday. Most shops are closed between 1200-1430. Some food shops (particularly bakers) are open Sunday mornings, in which case they will probably close Monday. Many shops close all day or half-day Monday.

Please note that some museums close on Mondays.

Clothes & Shoes – You may like to bring a warm sweater for cool evenings. Light rain wear for the occasional storm and good grip/flat walking shoes are recommended.

Camera – bring plenty of memory cards/film and any spare camera batteries as these are not always available. Please check with your guide before photographing people.

Bath plugs – The hotel has plugs for basins, but it is useful to carry a 'universal' one with you.

Telephones/mobiles – The guarantee of free mobile phone roaming throughout the EU, Iceland, Liechtenstein and Norway has ended. Check with your phone operator to find out about any roaming charges that might be applied after 1st January 2021. A new law means that you are protected from getting mobile data charges above £45 without you knowing. Once you reach £45, you need to opt in to spend more so that you can continue using the internet while you are abroad. Your phone operator will tell how you can do this.

Tipping – To keep our tours affordable, we do not increase the tour price by adding in tips. However, in the tourism industry, there is a certain level of expectation that when receiving a good service, one does award with a tip. Tour Managers, Representatives, Guides and Drivers appreciate a tip at the end of their involvement with the tour, but this is entirely at your discretion. We believe in allowing you to tip according to your level of satisfaction with their services, but for your guidance about £2-3 per person per day for the tour manager is the norm.

Health

Doctor/Dentist/Chemist

Please talk to your tour manager if you are feeling unwell and they will organise for you to see a doctor.

Keep receipts for insurance claims.

Hospital

Your tour manager/hotel reception will arrange hospital transport.

Keep receipts for insurance claims.

General Health Advice

We suggest you take a good supply of your own individual medicines with you and always keep some in your hand luggage in case you get delayed or your luggage goes astray. General-purpose supplies for bites, stings, or scratches, and your usual medication for headaches, or stomach upsets are always recommended. Oral re-hydration sachets are excellent for topping up salt and glucose levels.

Visit the NHS Fit For Travel website for more generally information specific to the country you are visiting – www.fitfortravel.nhs.uk

Sun Protection

Always ensure you take sufficient sun protection and moisturiser. A sun hat and sunglasses are also advisable.

Inoculations

You should check with your own doctor and take their advice as to which inoculations are required for the country you are visiting, as only they know your medical history and recommendations are liable to change at short notice.

Insurance

We strongly recommend that you take out an appropriate travel insurance policy when you travel abroad.

To be covered under your Travel Insurance Policy, if you become ill, it is essential that you contact a local doctor and telephone the emergency number of your insurance company. You will NOT be covered for any claim unless this procedure is carried out. Your insurance company will then decide on the best course of medical attention.

European Health Insurance Card (EHIC)

Before you travel, make sure you have got a valid European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) or UK Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC) or travel insurance with health cover.

You may not have access to free emergency medical treatment and could be charged for your healthcare if you do not have an EHIC or GHIC when visiting an EU country, or travel insurance with full healthcare cover when visiting Switzerland, Norway, Iceland or Liechtenstein. If you have an EHIC it will still be valid while it remains in date. Your European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) or Global Health Insurance Card (GHIC) will be valid if you are travelling to an EU country.
