Food

Burgundians are passionate and proud about both their food and their wine; the excellence of the cuisine goes back through history and remains at the forefront of life today. With varied and first-class ingredients – Charolais beef, Bourg-en-Bresse chickens, wild mushrooms, snails, pigeons, quails, boar, venison, freshwater fish, pâté, cheese, sausages and of course superb red wine – Bourgogne is a delight for gourmets. Famous regional dishes include Boeuf Bourguignon (beef cooked in red wine with mushrooms, onions and lardons), Coq au vin, Escarlots à la Bourgogne (snails prepared with butter, parsley and garlic), Gougères (choux pastry with cheese, often served as an aperitif or at a wine tasting), and Poulet de Gaston Gérard (chicken in mustard sauce, named after a former mayor of Dijon).

Traditional sweets include Poire Belle Dijonnaise (pears poached in wine with crème de cassis and gingerbread), Tarte de Semoule au cassis (blackcurrant tart), Tartouillat (similar to a clafoutis, pear or blackcurrant flan-like tart), and Anis de Flavigny (aniseed bonbon).

Coffee is served after the meal and will be black, in small cups, unless a café au lait (or crème) is requested.

Almost all restaurants offer two types of meals: à la carte (extensive choice for each course, generally more expensive) and le menu (a set meal at a fixed price). The bill (l'addition) will not be presented until it is asked for, even if clients sit and talk for half an hour after finishing their meal. Usually, a discretionary service charge is added to your bill in restaurants and bars, and no further tipping is required.

Generally speaking, mealtimes in France are strictly observed. Lunch is as a rule served from noon to 1330, dinner usually from 2000-2130, but the larger the city, the later the dining hour.

Drink

Wine is by far the most popular alcoholic beverage in France, and the choice will vary according to region. Burgundy has been an established viniculture region since the Middle Ages, when monks produced wine for the aristocratic Dukes of Burgundy in the Middle Ages and today is home to some of the world's most expensive and famed wines. Thanks to rich soil, exceptional weather conditions and local expertise, the wine regions of Chablis, Côte de Beaune, Côte de Nuits, Côte Chalonnaise and Mâconnais produce wonderful wines, mainly using Pinot Noir and Chardonnay grape varieties.

Enjoy the wine tastings included in your tour – discovering the fascinating history and particularities of the wines, in atmospheric cellars, whilst being a delight for the palette.

In elegant restaurants the wine list will be separate from the main menu, but in less opulent establishments will be printed on the back or along the side of the carte. The waiter will usually be glad to advise an appropriate choice. If in doubt, try the house wine; this will usually be less expensive and will always be the owner's pride.

Crème de Cassis, a sweet liqueur made from blackcurrants, is a local speciality.

Meals included in the price of your holiday are:

Breakfast – daily

One lunch – at Guédelon castle

Two dinners – at hotel

Destination

Our popular historian and guide, Julian Humphrys, is spreading his wings and leading tours to France, including this superb tour that looks at the abbeys and fortifications of the fabled Burgundy region. A highlight is a day at the amazing project at Guédelon to build a castle from scratch using 13th century techniques, where you will also have a stone carving workshop with hands-on participation.

Vézelay

At the height of its glory, in the 12th century, the abbey of Ste-Madeleine in Vézelay claimed to house the relics of Mary Magdalene and was one of the starting points for the pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela. Its importance during the Middle Ages is illustrated by the fact that Bernard of Clairvaux advocated the second crusade here, and Richard I of England and Phillip II of France met here before departing for the third crusade. Today the attraction of this UNESCO listed sanctuary lies in the Romanesque church with its magnificent Tympanum sculpture showing Christ on his throne.

Fontenay

One of the oldest Cistercian monasteries in Europe, the tranquil abbey of Fontenay offers a rare insight into the Cistercian way of life. Founded in 1118 by St Bernard and built in a Romanesque style, the abbey is remarkably well preserved, with the majority of the original complex, including the 12th century church, dormitory and cloister, intact. Located in a secluded position deep in the forest offering peace and tranquillity, this is a fascinating glimpse of the serenity and austerity enjoyed in years gone by.

Noyers sur Serein

Nestling in a bend in the River Serein, the medieval town of Noyers has kept many reminders of the Middle Ages: old side streets lined with typical houses, small town squares with picturesque names, three fortified doors and ramparts flanked by towers. One of the oldest houses in Noyers-sur-Serein is now the town hall: its foundations date back to the 12th century. The medieval city museum and the primary school are based in the former college founded in 1633.

Guédelon

A team of fifty master-builders have taken on an extraordinary challenge: building a castle using medieval techniques and materials. In a once disused quarry, surrounded by woodland and all the natural materials required for the construction - stone, wood, earth, sand, clay – day after day, in the presence of thousands of visitors, the quarrymen, stonemasons, woodcutters, carpenter-joiners, blacksmiths, tile makers, carters and rope makers are building a castle from scratch. Inspired by the past, this building site is also of great relevance to the 21st century.

Guédelon is of scientific, historic and educational interest; it is a tourist destination and, above all, it is a collective venture.

Throughout the seasons, Guédelon's workers rise to this extraordinary challenge. Visitors from across the globe have witnessed the building of the curtain walls, the Great Hall's roof timbers, the antechamber and its mural paintings, the castle kitchen and storeroom, the rib-vaulted guardrooms and the crenelated wall-walk, on this, the only construction site of its kind in the world.

The Basics

Climate – The weather in Burgundy at this time of year is likely to be pleasant, but there is the chance of the odd shower. Our best advice is to come prepared.

Time – GMT +2 hours (Summer time Apr-Oct); GMT + 1 (Standard time Nov-Mar).

Language – French.

Religion – Roman Catholic.

National holidays – New Year's day (01 Jan); Easter Monday; Labour day (01 May); Victory in Europe day (08 May); Ascension day; Whit Sunday; Whit Monday; National day (14 Jul); Assumption of Mary (15 Aug); All Saints' day (01 Nov); Armistice day (11 Nov); Christmas day (25 Dec).

Currency – Euro. €1 = 100 cents. Notes are in denominations of €500, 200, 100, 50, 20, 10 and 5. Coins are in denominations of €2 and 1, and 50, 20, 10, 5, 2 and 1 cents.

Banks – Cashpoints compatible with international banking networks are located in all towns and cities, as well as airports, major train stations and other spots. They usually offer an attractive exchange rate. Those banks that still exchange foreign currencies into local money will always charge a transaction fee, so withdrawing money from an ATM usually represents the most logical means of obtaining euros.

Credit cards – American Express, Diners Club, MasterCard and Visa are widely accepted across the country. If you're eating at a restaurant, check prior to the meal that your card will be an acceptable form of payment. It is advisable to carry a supply of cash with you at all times, as restaurants and shops in small villages may not accept credit cards.

Electricity – 220 volt, two-pin continental plug.

Drinking water – Tap water is safe to drink. (Although you'll find a huge amount of bottled water for sale too)

Shops and museums – Department stores are open 0900-1830 Monday to Saturday. Most shops are closed between 1200-1430. Some food shops (particularly bakers) are open Sunday mornings, in which case they will probably close Monday. Many shops close all day or half-day Monday. Please note that most museums are closed on Mondays.

Clothes & Shoes – You may like to bring a warm sweater for cool evenings. Light rain wear for the occasional storm and good flat/grip walking shoes are recommended.

Camera – bring plenty of memory cards/film and any spare camera batteries as these are not always available. Please check with your guide before photographing people.

Bath plugs – The hotel has plugs for basins, but it is useful to carry a 'universal' one with you.

Telephones/mobiles – You should be able to use your mobile phone in France, depending on your operator and contract.

Tipping – To keep our tours affordable, we do not increase the tour price by adding in tips. However, in the tourism industry, there is a certain level of expectation that when receiving a good service, one does award with a tip. Tour Managers, Representatives, Guides and Drivers appreciate a tip at the end of their involvement with the tour, but this is entirely at your discretion. We believe in allowing you to tip according to your level of satisfaction with their services, but for your guidance about £2-3 per person per day for the tour manager is the norm. We would like to reiterate that tipping is an entirely optional payment and this information is given purely to answer any questions you may have about it.

Health

Doctor/Dentist/Chemist

Please talk to your tour manager if you are feeling unwell and they will organise for you to see a doctor.

Keep receipts for insurance claims.

Hospital

Your tour manager/hotel reception will arrange hospital transport.

Keep receipts for insurance claims.

General Health Advice

We suggest you take a good supply of your own individual medicines with you and always keep some in your hand luggage in case you get delayed or your luggage goes astray. General-purpose supplies for bites, stings, or scratches, and your usual medication for headaches, or stomach upsets are always recommended. Oral re-hydration sachets are excellent for topping up salt and glucose levels.

Visit the NHS Fit For Travel website for more generally information specific to the country you are visiting – www.fitfortravel.nhs.uk

Sun Protection

Always ensure you take sufficient sun protection and moisturiser. A sun hat and sunglasses are also advisable.

Inoculations

You should check with your own doctor and take their advice as to which inoculations are required for the country you are visiting, as only they know your medical history and recommendations are liable to change at short notice.

Insurance

To be covered under your Travel Insurance Policy, if you become ill, it is essential that you contact a local doctor and also telephone the emergency number of your insurance company. You will NOT be covered for any claim unless this procedure is carried out. Your insurance company will then decide on the best course of medical attention.

European Health Insurance Card (EHIC)

The EHIC replaced the old E111 in 2006. Valid in all EEA countries, the card lets you get state healthcare at a reduced cost or sometimes for free. It will cover you for treatment that is needed to allow you to continue your stay until your planned return. It also covers the treatment of pre-existing medical conditions.

Please note that the EHIC is not an alternative to travel insurance. It will not cover any private medical healthcare or costs such as being flown back to the UK, or lost or stolen property. Therefore, it is important to have both an EHIC and a valid private travel insurance policy. It is also important to note that each country's healthcare system is slightly different, so the EHIC might not cover everything that would be generally free on the NHS.

We strongly recommend that you take out an appropriate travel insurance policy when you travel abroad.

For more information about the EHIC please visit:

<https://www.ehic.org.uk>
