Food

General de Gaulle once asked, with a certain amount of pride, how it was possible to rule a country which produced 365 different kinds of cheese; with one of France's most impressive cheese-boards, Normandy makes an important contribution to this selection, with the excellent Neufchâtel, Pont-L'Évêque, Livarot, and, of course, Camembert.

In addition to being famous for its dairy products, Normandy is also renowned for its apple orchards and seafood. Shellfish, oysters, scallops, mussels, Coquilles St Jacques and cool water fish will feature on most menus, often combined with another regional speciality, such as a sauce à la crème or au Camembert.

The main dish will generally be meat-based and rich – Canard à la Rouennaise (duck), veal or pork in a cream or cider sauce, Agneau pré sale (roasted lamb raised on salty marshlands), or another Normandy speciality, tripe (Tripes à la mode de Caen or tripe stew).

Many of Normandy's sweet dishes are based on apples – the most widely spread being Tarte aux pommes (apple tart). Other specialities include Teurgoule (milky rice pudding with cinnamon), pavé normand (butter biscuits), and Crêpes à la Bénédicte.

Calvados with apple ice cream (trou normand) is a traditionally taken to clear the palate between courses.

Coffee is served after the meal and will be black, in small cups, unless a café au lait (or crème) is requested.

Almost all restaurants offer two types of meals: a la carte (extensive choice for each course, generally more expensive) and le menu (a set meal at a fixed price). The bill (l'addition) will not be presented until it is asked for, even if clients sit and talk for half an hour after finishing their meal. Usually, a discretionary service charge is added to your bill in restaurants and bars, and no further tipping is required.

Generally speaking, mealtimes in France are strictly observed. Lunch is as a rule served from noon to 1330, dinner usually from 2000-2130, but the larger the city, the later the dining hour.

Drink

The abundance of apples also influences the region's beverage production, which includes cider (brut or doux), pommeau (sweet, light and refreshing as an apéritif), Calvados (brandy distilled from apple cider), and of course, apple juice.

Beer is also popular in the region; local favourites are Lugus Ale, Loup Garou brune, Viking Wolf and Cervoise Guedelon.

Bénédictine, with ice before a meal, or on its own as a digestive, is another popular liqueur of the region.

Meals included in the price of your holiday are:

Breakfast – daily

Dinner is included on two nights

Destination

Impressionism has long been associated to Paris, but there are many links and connections with the nearby region of Normandy, thanks largely to Monet's involvement in and love of the area. Having spent much of his childhood in Le Havre and the last 40 years of his life in Giverny, many of Monet's most famous paintings are of Norman landscapes. Indeed, his painting Impression, Sunrise of the Normandy coast gave rise to the term Impressionism.

On this wonderful short lecture tour, based in Rouen, you will track the Impressionist heritage throughout the region, in the incomparable company of Dr. Anne Anderson whose knowledge and enthusiasm will enlighten and entertain.

Details of places of interest included in your tour:

Rouen & the Musée des Beaux Arts

Located on the Seine, Rouen is a beautiful cathedral city with a wealth of sights, particularly its Cathédrale Notre-Dame, which was repeatedly painted by Monet, the 15th century Palais de Justice and the Place du Vieux-Marché, where Joan of Arc was burned at the stake in 1431.

Rouen's fabulous Musée des Beaux Arts houses a wonderful collection including masterpieces by Delacroix, Corot, Gustave Moreau, Degas and Monet (his Rouen Cathedral), establishing Rouen as the home of one of France's biggest Impressionist collections outside Paris.

Honfleur

The pretty port of Honfleur, with its picturesque backstreets and old houses, has long held a strong appeal to artists. The changing light on the Seine estuary has inspired many Impressionists including Courbet, Monet and Boudin.

Musée d'Art Moderne André Malraux (MuMa)

Enjoying a coastal setting in Le Havre, the MuMa was the first major museum built after the Second World War and is a masterpiece of modern architecture, renowned for its light, transparent look and feel. It contains the second largest collection of Impressionist paintings in France (after the Musée d'Orsay).

Giverny

The village which Monet fell in love with, and lived in, from 1883 until his death in 1926, Giverny is a lovely place. There will be visits to Monet's House, where you will be able to stroll around the magnificent gardens and lily pond that Monet created and captured in some of his most famous paintings, as well as the Musée des Impressionismes, home to a series of exhibitions dedicated to Impressionism.

Tour manager

Your tour manager will be on hand throughout the tour to ensure that everything operated according to plan. If you have any problems or questions please see him or her immediately – it is often possible to resolve complaints or problems very quickly on the spot, and do everything to help you enjoy your holiday.

The Basics

Climate – The weather in Normandy at this time of year is likely to be similar to the UK in spring – unpredictable and the chance of the odd shower. Our best advice is to come prepared.

Time – GMT +2 hours (Summer time Apr-Oct); GMT + 1 (Standard time Nov-Mar).

Language – French.

Religion – Roman Catholic.

National holidays – New Year's day (01 Jan); Easter Monday; Labour day (01 May); Victory in Europe day (08 May); Ascension day; Whit Sunday; Whit Monday; National day (14 Jul); Assumption of Mary (15 Aug); All Saints' day (01 Nov); Armistice day (11 Nov); Christmas day (25 Dec).

Currency – Euro. €1 = 100 cents. Notes are in denominations of €500, 200, 100, 50, 20, 10 and 5. Coins are in denominations of €2 and 1, and 50, 20, 10, 5, 2 and 1 cents.

Banks – Cashpoints compatible with international banking networks are located in all towns and cities, as well as airports, major train stations and other spots. They usually offer an attractive exchange rate. Those banks that still exchange foreign currencies into local money will always charge a transaction fee, so withdrawing money from an ATM usually represents the most logical means of obtaining euros.

Credit cards – American Express, Diners Club, MasterCard and Visa are widely accepted across the country. If you're eating at a restaurant, check prior to the meal that your card will be an acceptable form of payment. Even in cities, it's advisable to carry a supply of cash with you at all times. Varying amounts of commission can be charged.

Electricity – 220 volt, two-pin continental plug.

Drinking water – Tap water is safe to drink. (Although you'll find a huge amount of bottled water for sale too)

Shops and museums – Department stores are open 0900-1830 Monday to Saturday. Most shops are closed between 1200-1430. Some food shops (particularly bakers) are open Sunday mornings, in which case they will probably close Monday. Many shops close all day or half-day Monday. Please note that most museums are closed on Mondays.

Clothes & shoes – You may like to bring a warm sweater for cool evenings. Light rain wear for the occasional storm and good grip/flat walking shoes are recommended.

Camera – bring plenty of memory cards/film and any spare camera batteries as these are not always available. Please check with your guide before photographing people.

Bath plugs – The hotel has plugs for basins, but it is useful to carry a 'universal' one with you.

Telephones/mobiles – You should be able to use your mobile phone in France, depending on your operator and contract.

Tipping – To keep our tours affordable, we do not increase the tour price by adding in tips. However, in the tourism industry, there is a certain level of expectation that when receiving a good service, one does award with a tip. Tour Managers, Representatives, Guides and Drivers appreciate a tip at the end of their involvement with the tour, but this is entirely at your discretion. We believe in allowing you to tip according to your level of satisfaction with their services, but for your guidance about £2-3 per person per day for the tour manager is the norm. We would like to reiterate that tipping is an entirely optional payment and this information is given purely to answer any questions you may have about it.

Health

Doctor/Dentist/Chemist

Please talk to your tour manager if you are feeling unwell and they will organise for you to see a doctor.

Keep receipts for insurance claims.

Hospital

Your tour manager/hotel reception will arrange hospital transport.

Keep receipts for insurance claims.

General Health Advice

We suggest you take a good supply of your own individual medicines with you and always keep some in your hand luggage in case you get delayed or your luggage goes astray. General-purpose supplies for bites, stings, or scratches, and your usual medication for headaches, or stomach upsets are always recommended. Oral re-hydration sachets are excellent for topping up salt and glucose levels.

Visit the NHS Fit For Travel website for more generally information specific to the country you are visiting – www.fitfortravel.nhs.uk

Sun Protection

Always ensure you take sufficient sun protection and moisturiser. A sun hat and sunglasses are also advisable.

Inoculations

You should check with your own doctor and take their advice as to which inoculations are required for the country you are visiting, as only they know your medical history and recommendations are liable to change at short notice.

Insurance

To be covered under your Travel Insurance Policy, if you become ill, it is essential that you contact a local doctor and also telephone the emergency number of your insurance company. You will NOT be covered for any claim unless this procedure is carried out. Your insurance company will then decide on the best course of medical attention.

European Health Insurance Card (EHIC)

The EHIC replaced the old E111 in 2006. Valid in all EEA countries, the card lets you get state healthcare at a reduced cost or sometimes for free. It will cover you for treatment that is needed to allow you to continue your stay until your planned return. It also covers the treatment of pre-existing medical conditions.

Please note that the EHIC is not an alternative to travel insurance. It will not cover any private medical healthcare or costs such as being flown back to the UK, or lost or stolen property. Therefore, it is important to have both an EHIC and a valid private travel insurance policy. It is also important to note that each country's healthcare system is slightly different, so the EHIC might not cover everything that would be generally free on the NHS.

We strongly recommend that you take out an appropriate travel insurance policy when you travel abroad.

For more information about the EHIC please visit:

<https://www.ehic.org.uk>
