

Nancy and the Birth of Art Nouveau

Passports

Please ensure your 10-year British Passport is not out of date and is valid for a full six months beyond the duration of your visit. EU, Andorra, Liechtenstein, Monaco, San Marino or Switzerland valid national identification cards are also acceptable for travel to France.

Visas

British and EU passport holders are not required to have a visa.

For all other passport holders please check the visa requirements with the appropriate embassy.

French consulate: PO Box 57, 6A Cromwell Place, London SW7 2EW;

Tel (020) 7838 2000/1.

Information Service: Tel (0891) 887 733, Fax: (020) 7838 2046.

Opening hours: 0900-1130 (and 1600-1630 for visa collection only) Mon-Fri (except British and French national holidays).

You will be issued with return train tickets.

Please take care not to lose your tickets and please check that the details on your tickets are accurate. Your ticket is non-transferable and non-refundable. No refund can be given for non-used portions.

Standard Premier on Eurostar tickets is indicated by two asterisks in the class type section in the top right-hand corner. A light meal will be served to passengers travelling Standard Premier on Eurostar. Standard class Eurostar tickets do not include any food or drink on board, although there is a buffet car serving drinks and snacks.

TGV tickets do not include any food or drink on board, although a buffet car is available.

Train Seats

On all legs of the journey you have reserved seat and carriage numbers which are shown clearly on your ticket.

Baggage

As with most trains, passengers are responsible for carrying baggage onto and off the train. Baggage can be stored on overhead shelves or at the entrance to the carriages. Trollies are available at St Pancras and Lille, but bags do need to be carried on to the platform. Porters are sometimes but not always available at St Pancras.

Travel Editions recommends a luggage delivery service called thebaggageman, where your suitcase can be picked up from your home before departure and delivered straight to your hotel; therefore removing the worry about carrying your cases onto and off the trains.

For further information: http://www.thebaggageman.com

Labels

Please use the luggage labels provided. It is useful to have your home address located inside your suitcase should the label go astray.

Transfers

On arrival in Nancy, transfer by coach to your hotel and check-in for three nights at the four-star Mercure Stanislas.

Special Requests

If you haven't already, please notify Travel Editions of any special requests as soon as possible to allow sufficient time to make the necessary arrangements.

Mercure Hotel Stanislas, Nancy

Located just 200 metres from the historic UNESCO World Heritage Place Stanislas in the heart of the city, this four-star hotel is ideal. It offers a bar and comfortable, finely-decorated bedrooms themed around Terrier art and Art Nouveau. Facilities include private bathroom with bath/shower, hairdryer, minibar, TV, telephone, wi-fi, safe and coffee/tea making facilities.

Food

Located on the north-eastern border of France, the Lorraine region's cuisine is inspired by neighbouring Germany – popular dishes include Quiche Lorraine, Bouchée à la reine (vol-au-vent garnished with savoury filling and thick creamy sauce), potée lorraine (pork, potatoes, beans, cabbage, carrot and leak stew), and choucroute Lorraine (sauerkraut with saucisson de Lorraine and frankfurter sausage). Other traditional dishes from Nancy include omelette de Nancy (made with Boudin de Nancy and herbs), salade de pissenlits (dandelion salad), Tourte aux grenouilles, côtes de veau à la nancéienne (veal chops served with cheese, cream and egg sauce), porc en civet roti aux mirabelles (roast pork with Mirabelle plums).

For typical sweets try the macarons de Nancy, Madeline Lorraine, Gâteau au chocolat de Nancy, the Bergamote de Nancy (hard sweetie made with Bergamote essential oil), and the many fruit tarts made with locally grown fruits such as mirabelle and damson plums, apricots, and cherries.

Coffee is served after the meal and will be black, in small cups, unless a café au lait (or crème) is requested. A speciality of the area is the brûlot, a sweetened coffee imbibed with Mirabelle eau-devie and flamed.

Almost all restaurants offer two types of meals: a la carte (extensive choice for each course, generally more expensive) and le menu (a set meal at a fixed price). The bill (l'addition) will not be presented until it is asked for, even if clients sit and talk for half an hour after finishing their meal. Usually, a discretionary service charge is added to your bill in restaurants and bars, and no further tipping is required.

Generally speaking, mealtimes in France are strictly observed. Lunch is as a rule served from noon to 1330, dinner usually from 2000-2130, but the larger the city, the later the dining hour.

Drink

Wine is by far the most popular alcoholic beverage in France, and the choice will vary according to region. After a Phylloxera infestation in the late 1800s, which destroyed much of the vines, the Lorraine is now one of the smallest French vineyards. It still manages to produce two original wines — a grey Gamay wine (Toul de Gris) and the white Auxerrois wines, as well as Pinot noirs and Pinot gris. Along with Côtes de Toul AOC, Moselle AOC and Côtes de Meuse are the main vineyards. Excellent mirabelle, damson, pear, raspberry, cherry and bilberry eau-de-vie and liqueurs are also produced in the region.

In elegant restaurants the wine list will be separate from the main menu, but in less opulent establishments will be printed on the back or along the side of the carte. The waiter will usually be glad to advise an appropriate choice. If in doubt, try the house wine; this will usually be less expensive and will always be the owner's pride.

Meals included in the price of your holiday are:

Breakfast - daily

Dinner is included on two nights at the atmospheric Art Nouveau Excelsior Restaurant, located 5 minutes' walk from the hotel.

The Art Nouveau Movement flourished throughout Europe between 1890 and 1910, embracing the use of natural forms and structures in art, architecture and the applied arts.

The stately town of Nancy - a model of 18th century town planning - enjoyed a second golden age at the turn of the 20th century, when rebellious local artists, such as Émile Gallé and Louis Majorelle, founded the École de Nancy, which became the leading force of the Art Nouveau movement in France. Today the town is a treasure trove of wonderful and whimsical Art Nouveau architecture, glassware, ceramics, stained glass and furniture. Other sites in Nancy include the Place Stanislas, the Ealise Bonsecours, Basilique Saint Epvre, picturesque Porte de la Craffe, Basilique Notre-Dame-de-Lourdes.

Details of places of interest included in your tour:

Excelsior Restaurant

One of the highlights of this tour are the two dinners taken in the Art Nouveau splendour of the Excelsior restaurant, that serves excellent brasserie fare in exquisite surroundings with a lively, bustling atmosphere as it has done for a century. The menu offers a welcome drink, 3-course menu with a choice at each course, accompanied by wine, water and coffee.

Villa Majorelle

The Villa Majorelle, testimony of the Art Nouveau period in Nancy, had closed for renovation in the summer of 2018. The first phase of renovation is over, and the house will be reopening from February 2020. Built in 1908 for the artist Louis Majorelle, the first completely Art Nouveau style house in Nancy, it is a stunning example of collaboration between Parisian architect Henri Sauvage and Nancy artist Majorelle, whose ironwork adorns the exterior and furniture decorates the interior. Admire its asymmetrical architecture, curved lines, floral motifs, and exquisite stained glass windows. The group will split in two to visit the lovely interior with a local guide and outside see its architectural splendour in the company of the tour lecturer.

École de Nancy Museum

Located on the former property of Jean-Baptiste Eugène Corbin, collector of École de Nancy artwork, this superb museum houses a wonderful collection of furniture, fabrics, jewellery and Gallé glassware in reconstructed Art Nouveau settings. The lovely gardens, restored in 1998, feature an oak door by Eugène Vallin and a pavilion aquarium with stained glass by Jacques Gruber.

Musée des Beaux Arts

The museum is housed in an 18th century pavilion belonging to the exceptional architectural collection designed by the architect of King Stanislas, Emmanuel Héré. From Place Stanislas, the Museum of Fine Arts is one of the flagships of Nancy's cultural life. The museum presents the biggest names in the history of European art: Le Pérugin, Le Caravage, Rubens and Delacroix. Its collections are particularly rich for the twentieth century, with in particular the glassworks of the Daum collection, exposed in the setting of the old fortifications of Nancy or the space dedicated to the constructor Jean Prouvé.

Maison Bergeret

Albert Bergeret, a printer known for the production of illustrated post cards, commissioned the architect Lucien Weissemburger to build his family home close to his printing works which no longer exist. The greatest artists of the Nancy School collaborated on the project, thus producing a very accomplished example of Nancy School architecture. With ironwork by Louis Majorelle, cabinetry by Eugène Vallin, stained glass by Jacques Gruber and Joseph Janin, and an enormous ceiling painting above the entrance hall by Victor Prouvé, it fulfils the concept of a Gesamtkunstwerk or 'total work of art'.

Parc de Saurupt

In 1901, an Art Nouveau style garden-city was created on the site of a former château of the Dukes of Lorraine. The project for this private estate with gates and a guardian was awarded to the architects Emile André and Henry Gutton.

However, only six opulent villas, out of the hundred initially planned, were built. In the inter-war years, other houses were built, but from here on the Art Deco style was employed.

Exploring this district, which is one of the city's most beautiful, is thus an opportunity to become acquainted with both styles side by side.

Graham Robb, The Discovery of France.

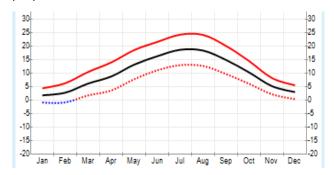

A general introduction to French culture, landscape and history, it also features an excellent insight into the distinctive character of France's regions.

Tour manager

Your tour manager will be on hand throughout the tour to ensure that everything operated according to plan. If you have any problems or questions please see him or her immediately – it is often possible to resolve complaints or problems very quickly on the spot, and do everything to help you enjoy your holiday.

The Basics

Climate – The weather in Nancy at this time of year is likely to be pleasant, but there is the chance of the odd shower. Our best advice is to come prepared.

Time – GMT +2 hours (Summer time Apr-Oct); GMT + 1 (Standard time Nov-Mar).

Language - French.

Religion - Roman Catholic.

National holidays – New Year's day (01 Jan); Easter Monday; Labour day (01 May); Victory in Europe day (08 May); Ascension day; Whit Sunday; Whit Monday; National day (14 Jul); Assumption of Mary (15 Aug); All Saints' day (01 Nov); Armistice day (11 Nov); Christmas day (25 Dec).

Currency — Euro. €1 = 100 cents. Notes are in denominations of €500, 200, 100, 50, 20, 10 and 5. Coins are in denominations of €2 and 1, and 50, 20, 10, 5, 2 and 1 cents.

Banks – Cashpoints compatible with international banking networks are located in all towns and cities, as well as airports, major train stations and other spots. They usually offer an attractive exchange rate. Those banks that still exchange foreign currencies into local money will always charge a transaction fee, so withdrawing money from an ATM usually represents the most logical means of obtaining euros.

Credit cards — American Express, Diners Club, MasterCard and Visa are widely accepted across the country. If you're eating at a restaurant, check prior to the meal that your card will be an acceptable form of payment. Even in cities, it's advisable to carry a supply of cash with you at all times. Varying amounts of commission can be charged.

Electricity – 220 volt, two-pin continental plug.

Drinking water – Tap water is safe to drink. (Although you'll find a huge amount of bottled water for sale too)

Shops and museums — Department stores are open 0900-1830 Monday to Saturday. Most shops are closed between 1200-1430. Some food shops (particularly bakers) are open Sunday mornings, in which case they will probably close Monday. Many shops close all day or half-day Monday.

Please note that most museums are closed on Mondays.

Clothes & Shoes – You may like to bring a warm sweater for cool evenings. Light rain wear for the occasional storm and good grip/flat walking shoes are recommended.

Camera — Bring plenty of memory cards/film and any spare camera batteries as these are not always available. Please check with your guide before photographing people.

Bath plugs – The hotel has plugs for basins, but it is useful to carry a 'universal' one with you.

Telephones/mobiles — You should be able to use your mobile phone in France, depending on your operator and contract.

Tipping – To keep our tours affordable, we do not increase the tour price by adding in tips. However, in the tourism industry, there is a certain level of expectation that when receiving a good service, one does award with a tip. Tour Managers, Representatives, Guides and Drivers appreciate a tip at the end of their involvement with the tour, but this is entirely at your discretion. We believe in allowing you to tip according to your level of satisfaction with their services, but for your guidance about £2-3 per person per day for the tour manager is the norm. We would like to reiterate that tipping is an entirely optional payment and this information is given purely to answer any questions you may have about it.

Doctor/Dentist/Chemist

Please talk to your tour manager if you are feeling unwell and they will organise for you to see a doctor.

Keep receipts for insurance claims.

Your tour manager/hotel reception will arrange hospital transport.

Keep receipts for insurance claims.

General Health Advice

We suggest you take a good supply of your own individual medicines with you and always keep some in your hand luggage in case you get delayed or your luggage goes astray. General-purpose supplies for bites, stings, or scratches, and your usual medication for headaches, or stomach upsets are always recommended. Oral rehydration sachets are excellent for topping up salt and glucose levels.

Visit the NHS Fit For Travel website for more generally information specific to the country you are visiting — www.fitfortravel.nhs.uk

Sun Protection

Always ensure you take sufficient sun protection and moisturiser. A sun hat and sunglasses are also advisable.

Inoculations

You should check with your own doctor and take their advice as to which inoculations are required for the country you are visiting, as only they know your medical history and recommendations are liable to change at short notice.

To be covered under your Travel Insurance Policy, if you become ill, it is essential that you contact a local doctor and also telephone the emergency number of your insurance company. You will NOT be covered for any claim unless this procedure is carried out. Your insurance company will then decide on the best course of medical attention.

European Health Insurance Card (EHIC)

The EHIC replaced the old E111 in 2006. Valid in all EEA countries, the card lets you get state healthcare at a reduced cost or sometimes for free. It will cover you for treatment that is needed to allow you to continue your stay until your planned return. It also covers the treatment of pre-existing medical conditions.

Please note that the EHIC is not an alternative to travel insurance. It will not cover any private medical healthcare or costs such as being flown back to the UK, or lost or stolen property. Therefore, it is important to have both an EHIC and a valid private travel insurance policy. It is also important to note that each country's healthcare system is slightly different, so the EHIC might not cover everything that would be generally free on the NHS.

We strongly recommend that you take out an appropriate travel insurance policy when you travel abroad.

We would advise ensuring that your travel insurance has full health cover in the event that the EHIC becomes invalid following the end of the transition period in December 2020.

For more information about the EHIC please visit: https://www.ehic.org.uk
